

The Kind, Trustworthy and Courteous Girl Scout in a Few Views of Her Helpful Activities

GIRL SCOUTS GIVE THEIR SERVICES TO THE NEEDY in a time of stress. Scout Amy Firth lending a helping hand in the housekeeping task.

WHILE THE MOTHER prepares the daily meal, Scout Dorothea Allen is trusted with the care of baby and little sister.

AT THE QUAKER CITY 'TOY DOG FANCIERS' SHOW Mrs. J. C. Shay's Boston terrier, Hoyt's Lacona Boy, was a winner in his class.

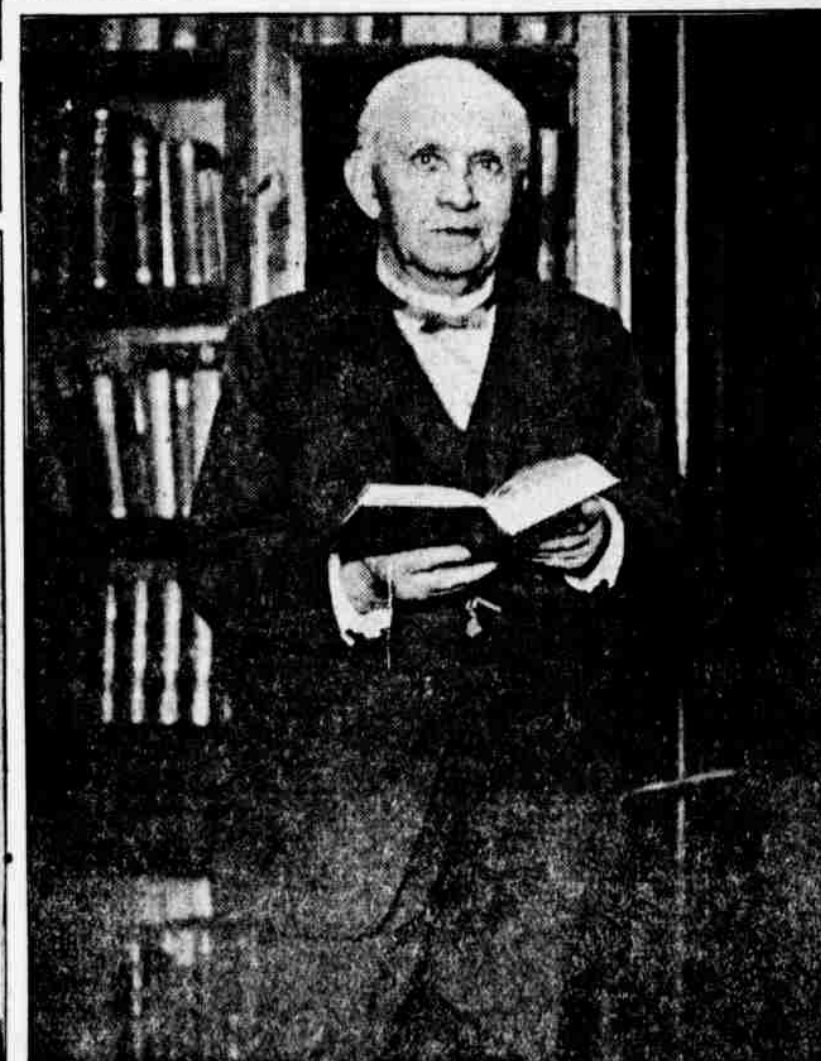

GIRL SCOUTS OF TROOP 33 tying up bundles destined for the boys overseas.

LITTLE PEGGY CORTRIGHT is very pleased to let you have a look at her prize-winning Boston terrier, Lady Innocent.

SCOUT ELSIE MARSH knows just what to do, and shows her expertness in arranging a bandage.

MUCH OF FORMER JUDGE MAYER SULZBERGER'S time, since his retirement to private life a few years ago, is spent in his library. Ensnared among his favorite books is where the photographer found him.